

Creative Learning in the Digital Age

On-Line Teaching Resources for World War One

Public Records Office Northern Ireland (PRONI):

http://www.proni.gov.uk/fww\_guide\_version\_3\_july\_2014.pdf

A guide to World War 1 documents available for study, held by PRONI. Overviews of the collections are available online.

British Library:

<http://www.bl.uk/world-war-one> Explore a range of World War One teaching resources for use in the secondary school classroom, designed to help teachers get the most out of this website.

BBC:

<http://www.bbc.co.uk/schools/0/ww1/> A wide range of teaching resources from the BBC on World War 1 and its impact on life in Britain, for primary and secondary schools.

JISC:

<http://www.jisc.ac.uk/ww1> provides links to a variety of World War 1 sites, (including The First World War Digital Poetry Archive)- teachers should read JISC's copyright declaration before using material from the website.

<http://jiscww1discovery.net/> King's College London has created an accessible online database which captures information on UK university, archive, library and museum holdings relating to the conflict.

The Great War 1914-18:

<http://www.greatwar.co.uk/research/education/teacher-ww1-resources.htm>

Offers teachers and students a range of useful information for study on First World War topics, resources for further study and photographs, locations and visitors' information for making visits to the battlefields of the Western Front in Belgium and France.

The Imperial War Museum:

<http://www.iwm.org.uk/learning/resources/first-world-war>

Free resources to use in the classroom for teachers from the Imperial War Museum

Centenary News First World War 1914-18:

<http://www.centenarynews.com/education> a not for profit social enterprise set up to provide independent, impartial and international coverage of the Centenary of the First World War. Provides information on events and resources as they become available.

Primary Treasure Chest:

<http://www.primarytreasurechest.com/topics-ks2/history/world-war-1.html> Offers lots of free World War One teaching resources to support learning history through the topic World War 1 for KS 2 (but could be adapted to KS3).

Creative Learning in the Digital Age

Memories of World War One Teaching Resource:

http://www.giantspectacular.com/sites/default/files/memories\_of\_world\_war\_one.pdf

A teaching resource that provides links to local and national archives and cultural programmes, offering curriculum ideas and web platforms that enable schools to share research and activity throughout the four year commemoration.

TES Teaching Resources:

<http://www.tes.co.uk/resource-collections/Teaching-the-First-World-War-6400138/>

Downloadable resources for teachers.

Into Film:

<http://www.intofilm.org/private-peaceful-resource>

This resource, produced in partnership with the National Literacy Trust and aimed primarily at Key Stage 3, is based around the film Private Peaceful - the 2012 screen adaptation of Michael Morpurgo's book of the same name. It provides a timely, in-depth and collaborative way to mark the centenary of the World War I with students.

World War 1 Toolbox:

<http://www.ww1toolbox.org.uk/wwi-film-archive-websites/>

Provides links to websites with archive film footage that can be downloaded and used in the classroom (NB teachers must read the copyright agreements for each institution listed before using any footage, as terms of use may differ)

For an insight on World War One from the perspective of the Allies: (NB most of these sites provide primary documents rather than teaching resources)

National Library of New Zealand:

<http://schools.natlib.govt.nz/resources-learning/first-world-war-resource-guide-schools>

Offers teachers access to images and online content including a wide range of digitised primary source material. It also provides links to a range of valuable New Zealand First World War related resources.

Australian War Museum

<http://www.awm.gov.au/education/schools/resources/>

Case studies, primary sources and activities, related to the Australia's involvement in World War 1.

Canadian War Museum:

<http://www.warmuseum.ca/cwm/exhibitions/guerre/home-e.aspx>

Included lesson plans and handouts, and primary source packages and a list of recommended web sites and books

PBS America: <http://www.pbs.org/greatwar/resources/lesson.html>

Lesson plans and resources

Creative Learning in the Digital Age

Library of Congress (America):

<http://www.loc.gov/rr/program/bib/wwi/wwi.html>

Contains a wide variety of material related to World War I, including photographs, documents, newspapers, films, sheet music, and sound recordings. This guide compiles links to World War I resources throughout the Library of Congress Web site. In addition, this guide provides links to external Web sites focusing on World War I and a bibliography containing selections for both general and younger readers.

National Archives (America):

<http://www.archives.gov/research/alic/reference/military/ww1.html>

Provides access to primary sources, biographies and some teaching materials. This site also provides links to other World War One sites that might be of interest.