

A* AGGREGATION RULES at A Level

Note A* is only available on cash-ins not at unit level

	1st criteria	2nd criteria
4 unit subjects	Overall 'A' for the 4 units (AS and A2 combined) which is 320 um or above	The combination of the two A2 units must be over 90% of the uniform marks available at A2 which is 180 um or above for these units
Applied Subjects Double Award (12 units)	Overall 'AA' for the 12 units (AS and A2 combined) which is 960 um or above	To gain A*A* The combination of the six A2 units must be over 90% of the uniform marks available at A2 which is 540 um or above for these units To gain A*A The combination of the three best A2 units must be over 90% of the uniform marks available which is 270 um or above for these units
Applied Subjects Single Award (6 units) and Biology/ Chemistry Physics	Overall 'A' for the 6 units (AS and A2 combined) which is 480 um or above	The combination of the best three A2 units must be over 90% of the uniform marks available at A2 which is 270 um or above for these units
A level Mathematics	Overall 'A' for the 6 units (AS and A2 combined) which is 480 um or above	The combination of Unit C3 + C4 must be over 90% of the uniform marks available which is 180 um or above for these units
A level Further Mathematics	Overall 'A' for the 6 units (AS and A2 combined) which is 480 um or above	The combination of the three A2 units used for this cash-in must be over 90% of the uniform marks available which is 270 um or above in these units