

The WOW Factor Year 9

Unit 4- The Ripple Effect

www.bitc.org.uk

The Business in The Community (BITC) website provides information about social responsibility and it contains case studies about businesses and organisations that have had a positive impact on society.

www.csr.gov.uk

This is a Government website devoted to Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) and it provides useful case studies and information.

www.direct.gov.uk

Directgov is the Government's main public-facing website in the UK which brings together 'everyday' information and services in one place. It includes a section on the environment and greener living and sustainable development.

www.investni.com

Invest NI's websites provides information about the small business sector in Northern Ireland as well as some case studies on local entrepreneurs.

www.clk2do.com

Invest Northern Ireland website developed by CCEA for Key Stage 3. Year 9 section focuses on 'Making It Happen' innovation and includes learning opportunities about sustainable development. Video case studies included.

www.ni-environment.gov.uk

The Northern Ireland Environment Agency is a good source of information about protecting the environment. It provides advice and support, news, case studies, details of events and links to other environment related websites.

www.smallbusinessjourney.com

Provides practical information on all aspects of responsible business practice specifically for small and medium sized businesses.

www.sustainable-development.gov.uk

This is website developed by the Government which provides guidance on how businesses and organisations can help sustain the environment and protect our natural resources.